

Some 'futuristic' poetry by Γ2 (September-October 2012)

A. One day people will not have any stress or any other stupid pressure
they will always smile
they will dream and they will fly
and the world will be better.

One day people will have a lot of friends and life will not have any end
the world will be romantic
we will only have days without nights.

By Katerina Natsi

B. One day people will be more equal,
they will do whatever they want and broaden their horizons
democracy will be rampant
and the world will be better.

By Christos Betzelos

C. One day people will become more artistic they will start using art as a means to learning new things and expressing themselves
and the world will be colorful.

By Vassilis Selamsizoglou

D. One day people will be able to have the most power in technology.

They will be able to do everything based on their minds.

That will make them much cleverer than all forms of life.

They will be able to do some special things

and they will control whatever they want.

The world will become fully powerful and it will be able to check up all planets,

which will make it king of the whole galaxy.

In addition, people will have a lot of advantages in everyday life and they will do everything with the use of a button.

Finally, people will be able to do any experiment which will help them go on.

E. The future is indeed something less predictable than any poem, nothing can describe it better than imagination.

Though it is sad that it's not that far away,

we all await flying cars and hope that friends are there with us.

Technology develops fast and soon we will have the flying cars.

Though who will guarantee our friends,

that are the most precious jewels?

By Dimitris Papanagiotou

F. One day people will change

we will take care of nature

we will plant trees

and help animals.

People won't be hungry

and the world will be a better place.

By Marina Kiriakotzidi

G. One day people will not have money and the world will not have honey.

By Ioannis Kouprizas

H. One day people will stop being selfish,

they won't be greedy and arrogant,

they will start being mobilized

and contravene the profits of riches.

One day people will pursue equality,

the government won't control their lives,

and the world will be magnificent.

By Alexandros Minakakis

I. One day people will die

the sea is blue

the sky is blue

I love my mum

and this is true.

And the world will be lovely.

By Andreas Bekas

J. One day people will be good.

They will be funny, full of happiness

with no problem.

And the world will be better.

By Giorgos Brasnaris

K. One day people will live with no worries and with relaxation.

They will be happy with their lives

and they will have time to strengthen their relationships.

And the world will be united

By Giorgos Betzelos

L. One day people will be happy.

Even the most miserable won't feel unlucky.

Everybody will be honest with each other and nobody will fight one another.

People will be free to be themselves

and nobody will be in nerves.

And the world will be so beautiful and everything will be wonderful.
Not even one person will be hungry
and people will not get angry.
Life will be like in fairy tales,
nobody will suffer from pains.
Many people might think that my dreams cannot become real
but let's make it clear.
Our dreams can be fulfilled if we try,
but we should not lie.
The fulfillment of our dreams is very difficult,
but it is not insignificant.

By Georgia Vasiliou

M. One day the world will be a perfect place
where the people can say
"What a wonderful world"
because nothing goes wrong.
One day the people will be happy
as every day will be a party.
They will look on the bright side of life!

By Anna Papadopoulou

N. One day people will be equal

there won't be poor or rich.

Everyone will be unique but all will be one.

And the world will be the best place

for everybody that is alive.

By Maria Xerizoti

O. One day people will be like one friend and the world will not end.

By Kyriaki Daourou

P. One day people will be free

they will try to leave their jails

because they want to live free.

And someday this will happen

and they will leave this jail.

They will be happy

because they will be free.

And the world will be better

because the people will try to make a happy world.

Q. Roses are red,

violets are blue,

Greece is going to the dogs,
and so is the EU.

In the future Greece will be even more broke,
if that's even possible at all.

The rest of the EU is bound to say
"the Greek case has long since failed."
And for sure we will be gone.
